BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS. Watch and Clock Maker by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES. Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's. Great Clocks and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

As a sample of English clock-work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have over been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfeet or earefully-adjusted mechanism." - Times, June 11, 1862; "A triumph of ingenuity." Telegraph, March 31

"A more splendid and exquisitely-finished piece of mechanism we have never seen," -- Stantard, June 17, 1862. "Some of them are of great beauty; and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same pirit and success this first attempt to competewith foreigners in decorative watches, there scens to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands,"-Times, June "Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well'r. paid the trouble of an inspection." - Illustrated London News, November & WATCHES, adapted for every class, climate and country, whole-sale and retail. Suspicion is attached to the cook at the Hotel from the citcumstance of his having a stranger sleoping with him, who has not since been seen, and from the fact of his having been observed wa'king near the room about three in the morning. The cook is in custody.

The anathy which this community evinces when occasion requires that we should all unite for the purposes of to forward you. - I remain, Dear Sir, Your ob. punity, and good institutions are permitted to fall to decay."

We always prophesied that the "Hongkong Artillery. Volunteer Corps" would prove a failure, and our predictions have long since become verified. The idea of its establishment emanated from Captain Brine, who was the only man in the Colony who of Macao, situated on the Praya Manduco, and countenance the movement. Nobody seemed particularly anxious to assist him in forming the Corns, however, the number of signa-Robinson, by His Excellency's command the Corps was formed. For as out time nothing else was thought of but_Volunteering. The squabbles of course roon began; some wished it to be an Att lery Corps, and others, more sensible, were in favour of "the Rifles. The Artillery however carried the day, and then began a controversy respecting the uniform, some wishing it to be blue and day hereafter to be made known. silver, others blue and red, and a few we believe were disposed for mauve and orange. This matter being settled at last by the former being decided on, then came the election; of Officers, about which the greatest exciteing, &c.,..... $75,700 ment prevailed, every one wishing to hold a commission. Some were so desirous of the honour that they actually had posters stuck all over the town demanding to be voted for. Many of those who found themselves in the minority resigned at once, the Corps, which had previously numbered about 150, being thus reduced to little more than a hundred. Then came the first drills; the members attended regularly, and with punctuality they mustered in the Barrack yard and looked like a body of the Hongkong Police, their uniform being very similar, and their marching in fours almost as good. Parsees looked particularly anatial with their caps placed far on the backs of their hends. For a few weeks all went on well and in the 24th of May 1862 the corps inade its first appearance, in public commanded by Captain Brine, and was reviewed, in company with "the regulars," on the paradeground by His Excellency the Governor in a white hat, who was heard to say that it, was a " creditable body." After this, as the novelty of the thing began to wear off, so did the attendance of the members at drill be come less regular. Captain Brine tried all kinds of dodges to get them together without success, until one fine day it was announced that the ladies of Hongkong had determined on presenting the corps with colours, and that a grand dinner would take place in the even ing. What Artillery should want with colours we cannot innigine, -lowever, they were presented, the dinner was held, patriotic speeches were, made, and the whole went off with the greatest éclut; but of what use was it? The Corps did not show out any stronger; on the contrary, from that day it became "smaller by "degrees and beautifully less," until, at last proposed Building. The space which, is it confidently hoped, will be thus placed at the disposal of the Committee will enable them to embrace in their scheme the Hall, in acknowledgment of a sum of Fire Thousand Bollars, which has been voted to the undertaking from the surplus Funds of the late St. An-

the Harbour Master's Office, which will be remored from its present position to one appropriated for it in the North Lastern angle of the intended building, in accordance with the proposal submitted by the Committee to Government for permission to use the site which that office at present partially occupies.

Finished plans have not yet been prepared, and it is proposed that, at the proper time, they should be thrown open to competition, but the Committee have satisfied themselves that the space they bare applied for will be ample for parrying on the various objects enumerated above on a resident which will render the is tended edition an ornamen to the Uly. a convenience to the public and it every way worthy of a Colony whose rapid a pwiland the green are the enrest proute of its wealth "mterprise and prosperity.

lie Building of this nature Bead scarcely he dilated Without diverting the Club House from its legitimate uses, at a great sacrifice of the ountenience of its members, there is not in the length and breadth of the City a suitable room which can be commanded for any object of general or social interest. The difficulties that attended the Insuguration Dinner of the Volunteers, the allandonment last winter of a Masonio Ball for want of h room to hold it in, and the disa lyantages to which the professional Art ets it present liere are exposed, are a few instances animgst very many of the inconveniences becasioned by the the want of City. Books in the cure of the Trustees of the Morrison Education Society, and which are threatened with decay for want of a proper plice of deposit, is an bject which especially commends itself as a matter of public import in a region so remote from the great centres of civilisation, and, where the want of standard works of reference and solid instruc-

This amount, which has been collected from vari- to. &c. ous sources without any appeal listing yet been made to the Community generally, full, however, obviously short of what will be required for the purposes contemplated, and the Committee trust that further contributions will be liberally and spontaneously tendered in support of the undertaking. Old residents, in retiring from the Colong may perhaps adopt the example of some who bare preceded them and evince their interest in its progress and in the well-being of their successors by a contribution to the Fund. The payment of interest on the Canton claims also affords an op portunity for Donations of sums of no great fraportance individually, but which in the aggregate would materially assist the common object, The Provisional Committee in concluding their present report, have thankfully to acknowledge the receipt of various amounts from Mr. John l'ent.
